The best places to eat, sleep and play in Hong Kong this spring and summer

With more than 60 million reviews and opinions, TripAdvisor makes travel planning a snap for more than 50 million travelers visiting our site each month.
Hong Kong’s appeal as a modern metropolis amid an ancient culture thrives. Sometimes bustling, sometimes serene, this great city is divided into four distinct areas: Hong Kong Island, the busy, pulsating heart and financial and commercial center; Kowloon Peninsula, home to many of the upscale hotels; New Territories, where you’ll find traditional rural life; and the 200 outlying islands, of which Lantau is the largest.

The British took control of Hong Kong in 1841, after the First Opium War against the Chinese; in 1898, they also gained a 99-year lease on the New Territories. When the lease ran out in 1997, the entire province was handed back to China. Today, British influence is still strong. As a result, most of the local population knows English (if not fluently, they know what you’re saying). Learn a few phrases and especially know the numbers so you can bargain in the markets!

Hong Kong’s sub-tropical climate promises pleasant, temperate weather for half of the year. January and February tend to be cool and cloudy; between May and August, expect hot, humid weather with occasional showers. Cyclone season (July through September) can bring higher winds, thunderstorms and occasional flooding.
HONG KONG’S BEST VIEWS

“The Lobby Lounge is among the best in the world for view, service, facilities and live music.”—TripAdvisor Member, Dallas, Texas

Lobby Lounge, Intercontinental Hong Kong, 18 Salisbury Road, Tsim Sha Tsui, Kowloon, 0852 2721 1211

“An excellent way to get from Kowloon to Hong Kong across the harbor, Star Ferry is quick, cheap and efficient and a real taste of old Hong Kong. You can sit on the top and enjoy the fantastic view. Especially stunning at night when all the skyscrapers are lit up.”—TripAdvisor Member, Nottingham, U.K.

Star Ferry, Star Ferry Pier, Edinburgh Place, 0852 2367 7065

Victoria Peak (Tai Ping Shan) is “billed as the number one tourist attraction in Hong Kong, and rightly so. The Peak Tram is a fun and easy way to get to the top of Victoria Peak, but it is the views from the peak that are the star of the show. We went up during the day, which being nice and clear, afforded great views over the harbor and across to Kowloon.”—TripAdvisor Member, Scotland

Victoria Peak, 1 Lugard Road, 0852 2849 7654

“Ocean Park is a theme park with rides and a butterfly house. My kids enjoyed the rides. The cable car view alone is worth the trip.”—TripAdvisor Member

ROMANCE

A trip on the Star Ferry is "one of the most romantic journeys you can make. Traveling from Kowloon to Hong Kong Island with the mass of neon lights in the background is the perfect place to propose.”—TripAdvisor Member, Cheltenham, England

Star Ferry, Star Ferry Pier, Edinburgh Place, 0852 2367 7065

“Fifty2 Lounge is a seductive lounge bar with awesome ambiance and a good drinks selection. The best thing was the balcony area which allows you to go out for a breather without leaving the bar.”—TripAdvisor Member, United Kingdom

Fifty2 Lounge, 3/F, 52 Wellington St., 0852 2110 4483

For a few moments of peace away from the crowds, take a stroll to the conservatory and the aviary at Hong Kong Park, “a quiet oasis.”—TripAdvisor Member, Solihull, U.K.

Hong Kong Park, 19 Cotton Tree Dr., Central, 0852 2521 5041
BUDGET
For inexpensive clothes shopping, visit Stanley Market, open daily. “The market itself is a maze of small shops and stalls with a huge array of things—some of which you never knew you’d need (or want!). My only word of advice would be to barter and, if you think you’re not getting a good deal, just walk away. You’ll be amazed how many stall owners will come after you to make a sale.”—TripAdvisor Member, London, England

Stanley Market, Stanley Beach

ADVENTURE
For the more energetic, there’s the 43-mile Lantau hiking trail, for which you need a map and a plan. You can do it in stages, but “allow at least five hours for the walk; bear in mind Lantau Island is the largest island in Hong Kong and it is very mountainous. It is not easy.”—TripAdvisor Member, Hong Kong

Lantau Trail, Lantau Island, 0852 2984 8191

EDUCATIONAL/HISTORICAL
The Museum of History “takes you for a walk through time. There are various movie rooms, displays, recreations and photos of old Hong Kong. You’ll learn so much about the rich culture and history of this vibrant city.”—TripAdvisor Member, Hong Kong

Hong Kong Museum of History, 100 Chatham Road S., Kowloon, 0852 2724 9042

RELAXATION
All bets aside, “the night was the winner” at the Happy Valley Racecourse. “There was ‘pomp’ surrounding the occasion where the horses are led out by riders in a red uniform. The winner is then led to show off in front of the crowd. A fantastic evening’s entertainment.”—TripAdvisor Member, Manchester, U.K.

Happy Valley Racecourse, Sports Road, Happy Valley, 0852 2895 1523

For less than a few dollars, you can take the tram on Victoria Peak for a stunning view of Hong Kong. It’s a “fun and easy way to get to the top, but it is the views that are the star of the show. The vista is breathtaking.”—TripAdvisor Member, Scotland

Victoria Peak Tram, Lugard Road, 0852 2849 7654

With a collection of more than 14,000 objects, including paintings, calligraphy and antique treasures, the Hong Kong Museum of Art “is down by the waterfront and a great place to spend a few hours on a rainy day. Go on a Wednesday, and it’s free to get in, too!”—TripAdvisor Member, Livingston, Scotland

Hong Kong Museum of Art, Cultural Centre Complex, 10 Salisbury Road, Kowloon, 0852 2721 0116

“...and the big Buddha, well it was impressive I must say.”

Smart Card—The TripAdvisor Local Expert for Hong Kong suggests getting an Octopus Smart Card. It allows you to use public transport without worrying about purchasing tickets—and it’s cheaper.

Slow boat—An Oxford TripAdvisor Member suggests using the old ferries instead of the faster catamarans: “There is no better or cheaper way to see the skyline than from the balcony of the ferries.”

Brilliant views—A TripAdvisor Member from Hampshire suggests traveling on the top deck of buses for brilliant views.
WHERE to eat

HEALTH-CONSCIOUS

“I highly recommend the Thai tofu sandwich at Life—it's easily one of the top five sandwiches I've ever eaten. All sandwiches are served with sweet potato garlic fries and a small mixed salad. A great value, and the cafe also supports local organic farmers.”—TripAdvisor Member, Hong Kong

Life Cafe, 10 Shelley St., 0852 2810 9777

“Ah Sin Vegetarian was clean, cozy and popular among locals. The meals were delicious and flavorsome. Although they seemed to contain fish or meat, they were made all from vegetables. It was amazing to find out what looked like a shrimp was actually not!”—TripAdvisor Member, Kanagawa, Japan

Ah Sin Vegetarian, M/F 71 Chatham Road, South Oriental Centre, 0852 2366 0067

“Cute Fei Vegetarian has to be the best restaurant in Hong Kong! The food was beautifully, freshly cooked to the highest of standards and was authentic!”—TripAdvisor Member, London, U.K.

Cute Fei Vegetarian, 32-34 Haiphong Road, 0852 2827 2928

“Delicious and flavorsome!”

HIDDEN GEMS

Kenjo is the “best sushi restaurant in Hong Kong. It truly has the freshest fish. Go for lunch when they have much cheaper options (sets run from HK$90 to 200). Sit at the traditional sushi counter and enjoy watching your meal being made.”—TripAdvisor Member, Hong Kong
